- Meeting started with prayer by Rev. Wilson Lee
- Brochures distribution and promoting the ministry of LLWWEMA
 - Both English and Chinese brochures have been printed and will be distributed by hand or by mail
 - Reminder via email with regards to distributing the brochures should be sent to each district
 - One copy per family will be distributed
 - Promote the brochure to our congregations during the Sunday service on August 10, 2008 at BOL in Torrance, California
 - Rev. Lee will do the Cantonese
 - James Liao will do the Mandarin
 - David Chan will do the English
- Updates from the districts for August Prayer/Newsletter
 - News and prayer requests to be included in the third quarter newsletter have been received. The third quarter newsletter will be published shortly.
- Updates from David Chan
 - Earthquake rebuilding project in China
 - No information has been heard from Mainland China as to what further help they may need from us
 - Per sister Lily Lang of Torrance BOL Church who went to Chengdu, it seems as though the crisis is almost over. Therefore, Chinese government may not ask us to further assist
 - What is needed: 1) new school, 2) moveable library, and 3) medical equipment
 - David will explore opportunities for future mission projects that could possibly be endorsed by the Association, such as short-term mission trips to Indonesia next year
- Updates and Prayer for the Toronto Mission Trip
 - Toronto trip is pretty much coordinated. Plane ticket for Rev. Wilson Lee is funded by the Association. Please pray for a very fruitful trip with God's grace.
- Meeting ended with a closing prayer by Elder Paul Lam.
