

LLWWEMA 13th General Assembly (September 10-14, 2010)

News Release ... November 19, 2009

The Ling Liang World-wide Evangelistic Mission Association (LLWWEMA) announced that the 13th General Assembly Meeting will be held in Torrance, California, USA.

The Torrance Bread of Life Church will host this event. The President of LLWWEMA for 2007-2010 Term, Dr. Rev. Wilson Lee has sent out invitation letters to Pastors, Elders, Ministers, and members of the sister churches within LLWWEMA for this important gathering.

Furthermore, Dr. Rev. Lee and the LLWWEMA had made two important announcements:

Scholarship

As the host, Torrance Bread of Life Church is offering four airfare scholarships to pastors and ministers who have been laboring for the Lord in poor remote areas. India and Philippines will get one scholarship each. Indonesia will get 2 scholarships. Scholarship money will be awarded in April 2010.

Revival Meeting – Rev. Thomas Wang will be the Key Note Speaker

The theme of the 13th General Assembly is “End Times and Church Mission”.

Some of the Ling Liang pastors will also be invited to share their messages at different sessions and worship services. All Ling Liang Churches will have a chance to report their mission projects and to participate in a discussion on future programs.

One of the most important agenda for the 13th Assembly is the Revival Meeting, for 3 nights – September 10-12, for 3 consecutive nights. In addition to the members and ministers of the Ling Liang churches, this Revival Meeting will be opened to all brothers and sisters in Greater Los Angeles area.

Praising the Lord, Rev. Thomas Wang has accepted our invitation to be the keynote speaker. Rev. Wang is the founder of the Great Commission Center International. He has written such books as “Handbook on Religions”, “From Eternity to Eternity”, and “America, Return to God”.
